HONORS TO LUNDY'S LANE HEROES.

Soldiers Who Died in 1812 Re-Interred With Befitting Ceremonies.

NIAGARA, July 26.—The 70th anniversary of the battle of Lundy's Lane was celebrated on the battlefield near Niagara yesterday. The celebration of the Lundy Lane victory is an annual institution, but yesterday there was a ceremony of especial interest to be performed. In April last while excavating near the town of Niagara some workmen discovered the bodies of a number of Royal Scots, a regiment which fought gallantly in the deadly struggle and bore the brunt of the fire. It was decided to re-inter these bodies with full military honors and orations. To give additional significance to the burial the Army and Navy Veterans Association was asked to take part and furnish pallbearers to lay away those who had fallen in one of the most gallant of British fights.

At the scene of the ceremonies Rev. Canon Houston delivered a eulogistic and historical address on the heroic memories of the day.

At the grave Miss Carson, an able and eloquent speaker, delivered a funeral oration, which was replete with historical interest and patriotic fervor.

The firing party, which gave the regulation burial shots over the graves, was chosen from the 44th Battalion of Niagara and composed of privates from companies 1 and 6.

BEHRING SEA DECISION.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—(Star-News cable.)—The Behring Sea arbitrators have decided in favor of Great Britain in every question of jurisdiction and proprietorship. This is announced by special to the Pall Mall Gazette from Paris. The decision, the despatch further says, does not recognize the United States' claim of jurisdiction in the Behring Sea. It also decided that the United States' alleged right to property in seals did not exist in law. On all points save one, where the United States arbitrators alone dissented. This decision, which apparently authentic, will be made public.

Familiarity With Snakes.
Familiarity with the snake breeds toleration. He is a lawless sort of creature certainly, with too many vertebrae and no eyelids, but he is not always so horrible as he is imagined. A snake is rather a pleasant thing to handle than otherwise—warm, firm, dry, hard and smooth on the scales, rather like ivory to the touch. He is also a deal heavier than you expect. When for good behavior I have been in the zoo and to the corner behind the lairs, where hang castoff skins like stockings on a line, I have handled many of his nets. I have never

Mr. Editor.—A word of explanation is necessary regarding the location of the place that bears the name, "Hud-

The frog business is contagious. It's very amusing to watch an amateur on his first frogging expedition. "Oh no I won't catch any, I'll carry the pail" is the invariable reply we get when he is asked to join us. The first half hour he takes in the scenery and comments on the weather. A few questions follow such as "How did you know there was a frog there?" "Do you have to hit hard?" "Say, will you lend me your stick?" He getting it and soon you see him pounding the ground about him in all directions and then gingerly brushing the grass aside to get a good view at the mangled remains of the frog that isn't there. He can't understand why he never finds the corpse. Soon he moves more cautiously, watches more closely, strikes more accurately and buds out into an amateur frogger. Its more amusing when fishing bull-frogs with a hook and line, for there the temptation to chase them into the marsh is so strong that it is difficult to keep the novice out of the mud and water. "I could not resist," "I'll have that fellow" he shouted, "if I have to chase him across the lake," and in he went and soon emerged from a clump of rushes joyfully brandishing a bull-frog above his head.

Tents along the bay are becoming more plentiful. The camping season is now at its best, and oh, how quickly it passes! People who have never camped never understand how we can enjoy ourselves this way, living in those "stuffy little tents." If they don't understand the matter after a visit to Le Nid they never will.

Mr. Radford desired to be appointed camp instructor to post the new comers. Appointment was made. He and Mr. Hoocy explained to the freshmen that they would be running a great risk by sleeping upon a cot the first few nights in camp so they made a comfortable looking bed on the ground out of an old tent with a few tent pieces inside of it and bidding them good night left their pupils to grind their bones sore, while Dave and Rad slept peacefully as babes upon the easy cots they had appropriated.

Mr. Scott's time was up on Tuesday so he reluctantly folded up his tent and camera and paddled to Deseronto to catch the liner. He has proved a very satisfactory acquisition to the membership of Le Nid.

Mr. Hoocy, of Toronto, dropped in upon us Sunday morning having arrived per Str. North King. Camp would not be complete without this worthy charter member and Dave's vacation would be unendurable without a visit to Le Nid. He brought with him a pocket full of baggage and the usual collection of songs and stories, especially stories.

This has been a model week so far for camping, but the farmers in this vicinity are looking anxiously for rain. Campers as a rule, and Le Nid is no exception, are not partial to thunder storms, but we wouldn't mind taking one good drenching if the rain would do our friends any good, and we're sure it would.

THE proposed sale of a number of the Thousand Islands, by the government is not meeting with much favor. The islands should be reserved by the government for the use of the people. Any one who has made a journey down the St. Lawrence can understand why it would be better to have the islands retained or at least a number of them. Rich people have already secured the control of some of the best "breathing" places in Canada, and it is surely time some choice spots were reserved for the use of the general public.

TOUGHS BREAK A MAN'S NECK

JOHN WILSON OF GILFORD, ONT., MURDERED IN WINNIPEG.

Found Dead in a Dark Lane At Midnight Robbed of His Money—No Marks of Violence Other Than a Broken Neck—
Two Men Arrested, One Confesses.

WINNIPEG, July 26.—John Wilson, who was murdered here on Friday night, was an Ontario man. For 28 years he was section foreman on the Northern Railway at Gifford, a few miles south of Barrie. He came to the Northwest in consequence of his sons-in-law removing here, and obtained employment on the C.P.R. at Shelly. Seven months ago his wife died and Wilson since that time has not been his former self. He was in easy circumstances, owning a house and lot at Shelly, and of late had not done much work.

At 10 o'clock on Friday he was last seen alive by his friends. At that hour he paid William Priddy an $11 account, and it was noticed that he carried a good-sized roll of bills contained in a leather purse fastened by a clasp. Wilson saw Priddy off on the train and was not under the influence of liquor.

Shortly before midnight Detective McKenzie, in walking across the yard in the rear of the Albert Hall block, corner of Main and Market-streets, stumbled over the body of a man lying on his face near the middle of the yard. At first he supposed the man to be intoxicated, but attempting to arouse him discovered by the state of the body that he was either dead or suffering from some disease which causes the body to assume the appearance of death. He investigated with a light and at once informed the police. The body was soon identified as that of Wilson.

On the body there was no sign of violence, and but for certain suspicious circumstances the case would have been thought to be one of death from fit or apoplexy, or other natural cause. The suspicious circumstances were that the left trousers pocket was found turned inside out, and his watch was missing, a portion of the broken chain being found near where Detective Mackenzie first found the body. His savings bank book, found in his pocket, indicates that on that day he drew out $50 from the Dominion Government savings bank in this city, and it is also stated he received about $30 from the C. P. R. pay car on the 16th inst. Yet the only money found on his person was two 10 cent pieces. A theory that he was sandbagged arose from the fact that his neck was broken.

Two tough characters named Le Blanc and George Riley are under arrest and one has confessed that they choked Wilson to death in the alleyway. How he came to go into the lane with the pair can only be known when the police make the confession public.

ing look that I don't approve. But there is a Robber Island snake about 5 feet long with no poison who is very pleasant company.—Arthur Morrison in Strand Magazine.

How Lead Pencils Are Made.

Few people are aware of the difficulties that were surmounted in the manufacture of the common lead pencil. In the first place the graphite of which it is made is rarely found sufficiently homogeneous to allow pencil lead to be cut from it, so it is always ground to powder and then pressed into blocks. The great difficulty was to press the blocks until the graphite was hard enough to use, and for many years every effort in this direction was defeated by the crumbly nature of the material. Finally a device was employed that exhausted the air, after which the blocks were again pressed, and when this was done the material was found to be as hard as when taken from the quarry. But thousands upon thousands of dollars were spent in experiments before the result was reached.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Delicate Compliment.

To be able to compliment without seeming to flatter is a rare gift, and probably no race of men are endowed with that gift more extensively than the French.

An example of the Frenchman's rare tact in matters of this sort is shown in that sweet little story of a man who had ventured to compliment a white haired old lady upon her beauty.

"Ah," said she, "I fear you flatter me. You call me pretty? Why, I am an old woman, my hair is white, and see, here is a wrinkle."

"A wrinkle?" he replied. "Never, madame; that is not a wrinkle. It is but a smile that has drifted from its moorings."—Harper's Young People.

FELLOWS.

If the weather continues dry, farmers in this section will be obliged to commence feeding their stock.

Burr brothers of this place received a letter from friends in Bay Center, N. D., and they report crops good in that section.

C. S. Snider and Son will open their butter factory at Violet on September 1st.

Mrs. Nathan H. Fellows is very ill. John Asseltine Esq. is very poorly.

James Paynes, of Richmond, was looking over the Burr estate this week with the intention of buying.

ENTERPRISE.

Miss Minnie Pyke is home from visiting friends in Kingston.

The children's concert on Friday last was a grand success. A good programme was presented. The drill by twelve girls with captain Cox as leader was very much appreciated. The captain thinks the girls would make as good soldiers as the boys.

The young man who occupied the chair did remarkably well.

I think the villagers may as well go to sleep nights as the burglars are giving them a rest. The watching parties are those that are not afraid of a gun, but they overdone it one night last week when they stationed one young man to watch, who in after speaking, said he was only afraid of two things, a woman and a gun. He had better practice what he preaches. Berry picking is all the rage.

Quarterly meeting next Sunday morning at Centreville. Preaching here in the evening. Mr. George Dunkley, Picton, was here renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wagar have returned from their trip to Montreal. Quite a number from here attended the excursion to Picton on the 1st, and report having a good time.

If troubled with Piles use Magic Pile Lotion, and then tell your neighbors and friends what you think of it.

owned by Mr. Jno. Hudson, about midway between Napanee and Deseronto. The park has been called by some persons "Fisery Point." I cannot say who but a prominent citizen is said to have so named it because while camping there some years ago he proposed to the lady who now bears his name, and was accepted. The proper name for the place is Hudson's Park, which said name is copyrighted and any one infringing on the name or attempting to alter it will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

This year the park is more attractive than ever before thanks to the kindness of the obliging owner, Mr. Hudson, who does all in his power to make his guests feel at ease, and secondly to the taste of the campers.

Looking up pine grove avenue from the river you see first to the right Mr. Thomas' tent, who with his family are spending their holidays there. Next the tent occupied by Mr. and Mrs. F. Arnott and family on the left, then Mr. S. Hall's tent, next to which is Mr. Lapum's group of tents occupied by himself and family. Mr. A. E. Paul's two tents serve as a background for the whole view.

Mr. Lapum was unanimously elected chief and laid down the following rules. 1st, all campers are to rise at five o'clock when the horn blows. 2nd, breakfast to be over at 6.30, dinner at 12, tea at 5 o'clock and lunch at 9 o'clock. 3rd, infraction of these rules punished by a fine at the discretion of the chief, said fine to be used for purchase of melons for the whole camp.

The scenery along the Napanee river is lovely, but one of our lady campers says it does not compare with the Hudson.

Fishing is good. Mrs. Arnott is the champion fisher, she having caught a pike that according to her comparison of weights, weighed 25 lbs. As we had no means of weighing it, this may be a little beyond its weight.

Fruit vegetables, milk and water are delivered at the camp every morning. Mosquitos we have permanently.

Boats, bicycles and carriages are constantly on the ground for the convenience of campers. The only accidents that have occurred yet have been Mrs. Arnott's dress taking fire, Mrs. Lapum's washcloths burnt up and one lady taking an involuntary bath in the weeds along the shore.

Last Sabbath morning we had a song service and on Sunday afternoon next at 3 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Rae will conduct a service to which all are invited.

Among our callers this week have been Mr and Mrs J. Hudson and family, Mr and Miss Thompson, Mr and Mrs Chaney Lapum, Mr J. S. Williams, Mr. Fisher, Miss Lane, Miss Marsh, Mrs. W. Mills, Miss Fox, Mr and Mrs M. S. Madole, Mr and Mrs S. R. Miller, Mr and Mrs A. Stacey, Mr Geo. Parrott, Mr Herb Hinch, Mr F. Mills, of Cleveland, Mr and Mrs Irvine Hudson, of Deseronto, Master Charles and Ernest Parrott, Mr and Mrs Chas Lowry, Mrs Parks and Miss Elsie Parks, Mrs H. V. Fralick, and a host of others.

CAMP LEAD.

Very cool weather this season. Maskos are just beginning to bite. The only form of larceny we are guilty of was committed in a pea field, but these good natured farmers wouldn't deny us what they throw to their hogs.

The island is a little fairy land this summer and all because of the beautiful little children. The place is full of them, all sizes and sorts, but pretty withal. Its enough to make the lovesick maidens forget their hours of sorrow to see these merry little dears skipping about in their light hearted pastimes.

tion of the city park has been a cricket crease. The cricketers were loud in their resentment of the intrusion of baseball players and others running over the turf destroying the crease.

The council passed a resolution to the effect that for certain considerations the cricketers were to be given undisturbed possession of the grounds and were promised police protection in the event of further trouble. There was much debating over the matter but none seemed to doubt the moral rights of the cricketers to protection. The condition by which the park was given to the people by the government were such as to make some believe that the action of the council in renting the ground was illegal and would not stand a test in the courts.

The petition of the Electric Street Railway Company asking for liberty to lay the track on the side of the road on Barrie street near the park was granted.

This very important demand gave rise to much talk before council and great was the surprise that it passed through council without any important discussion. It was a tribute to the all prevailing influence of the Folgers in municipal affairs.

A number of by-laws providing for the laying of granolithic walks on certain parts of the main thoroughfares passed without opposition.

A very elaborate resolution condemning the action of the government in advertising for sale all the Canadian portion of the 1000 islands and asking for a reconsideration of the action was carried after being modified at the suggestion of B. W. Folger.

The introduction of the electric street railway and the laying of granolithic walks will fill "long felt wants" and will serve to impress a more favorable opinion of our city on the minds of tourists.

The weekly concerts rendered by the 14th Band in the city parks are proving quite an attraction. Last Thursday evening well on to 1000 people strolled up and down the walks of McDonald park listening to the enlivening strains of King-ton's pet musical organization.

The canoe club was out in full force and having their canoes brilliantly illuminated with myriads of various colored lights contributed to make it a scene of exhilarating beauty. A regatta of row boats and yachts as an accompaniment to the canoes done much to increase the pleasant of the occasion. It could serve no other purpose than to impress visitors with the desirability of making Kingston a rendezvous for summer vacation. Kingston harbor is without doubt the prettiest in America.

A difference of opinion between the separate school board and the teaching staff of the Brother's school has resulted in a change of teachers.

An unusual occurrence took place on Sunday in the interchanging of denominational courtesies between the Anglicans and Presbyterians. The Rev. T. W. Barry, Anglican clergyman very acceptably filled the pulpit of St. Andrew's church. The optimist, through the telescope of renewed enthusiasm sees the approach of the millenium dawn.

NAPANEE, FRIDAY, AUG. 4th, 1893

EXIT the Imperial Federation league.
A London despatch says that the original or parent league formed to promote the Imperial Federation scheme is to be wound up "because funds are short." The whole movement appears to have petered out. Mr.
McNeill's proposition that the British parliament should tax all food stuffs imported from foreign countries while admitting colonial products free—and at the same time allow the colonies to shut British goods out of their markets—seems to have been the straw which broke the back of the Imperial Federation camel.—Free Press.

LORD Aberdeen, the new Governor-General of Canada, is the owner of a cattle ranch and therefore not in favor with those who do not like "tradesmen." But a large number of the members of the House of Peers—the body which proposes to thwart the will of the British electorate by rejecting Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule bill—are the owners of breweries, distilleries, and saloons. Not only have the great English and Irish brewers and distillers been made peers, but a blue book recently issued by the imperial parliament shows that the number of "drink shops" owned by members of the House of Lords is 1,529. The Earl of Derby, our late Governor-General, is the proprietor of seventy two such shops. Next comes the Duke of Bedford with eighteen, the Duke of Devonshire with forty-seven,
the Duke of Rutland with thirty-seven,
the Earl of Dudley with thirty-five,
the Duke of Portland with thirty-four,
and the Duke of Northumberland with the same number.

It was a maxim of the late M.
Thiers (somewhat discredited before his death) that the world is at peace when France is satisfied. At the present moment it is hard to make out from the Paris newspapers whether France is satisfied or not. Siam has accepted to all her demands, but it seems that it now requires guarantees.
She has the country in her grasp—that is she has all the guarantees that Siam could give, but this is not sufficient.
The truth probably is that France is nettled because England had something to say about the blockade. What England did say is not publicly known, but that she should say anything is intolerable to the Figaro, the Voltaire, and the frequenters of the cafes, the light-headed people who rushed into Bismarck's trap in 1870, from which they were ransomed by five milliards and two provinces. The Government will probably come out of the Siamese difficulty with some plunder and with what will pass at home for a triumph of French diplomacy, but according to present appearances it will have earned the ill will of Great Britain. This appears to be the opinion of Germany, which already speculates on this addition to her capital in the next European turmoil.

ONE of the sages of the People's party in Kansas some time ago delivered himself at a public meeting as follows:
"If all the money that is in the banks were in the pockets of the people, the country would be better off." This good man was evidently unaware of the fact that the money that is in the banks does not belong to the banks,
but to people who deposited it there,
and can draw it out again when they please; that, meanwhile, this money is lent out by the banks to people who can give no more than a promise that, when so lent out it circulates among the people in the channels of business

Twelve Drowned in the Danube.

VIENNA, July 19.—The iron gates in the River Danube, where many lives have been lost, claimed 12 more victims Tuesday. For some time past operations have been carried on with the object of taking out of the river at this point the rocks that have given the name of Iron Gates to this part of the river. Twelve workmen, who were in a small boat, were caught in the current which runs with great velocity at this point, and were dashed against a dredger that was moored in the stream.
The boat was smashed, and the men were drowned before any assistance could reach them.

No More Yarns About Indians.

There is an advertising man in Detroit, well known for his hustle, who has a pretty pair of children that come honestly by a desire to get all the fun obtainable as they pass through this probationary state. It is the habit of the father to regale the little ones with blood curdling Indian stories, for which they have the same insatiable desire as the nickle novel fiend for his choice style of literature. The moral of each of these wonderful relations by the head of the family is that the Indian, with all his warwhooping and ghost dancing, cares for good little children and scalps those who are bad. This bothered Teddy, the 3-year-old, considerably, and he finally determined on a council of war with his little sister. From all the evidence that their wise little heads could get together, they concluded that they were bad children and decided to anticipate any old Indian that might come stalking around after them by doing their own scalping.
Teddy promptly went at sister's golden locks with the family shears, sacrificed her bangs and waded ruthlessly through her hair. Then she reciprocated, and nobody ever saw two such heads, scarred over with nicks, ridges, "X's" and tufts that suggested the joint efforts of a Feejee barber and a modern knife thrower.
The mother simply sat down on the floor and wept scalding tears. The father kicked himself around the mile circuit, and the precious little youngsters insisted that they were only playing Indian. That household now draws the line on Indian yarns.—Detroit Free Press.

there was no division, but when there was a separate German nation the rulers gained many curious titles. "E" was the "Fowler." Then "Blood-

as the "Holy and Lame."

applied to a bank for a loan without offering sufficient security, and the loan being refused he concluded that the money in the banks was maliciously withheld from the people. What he really meant to say was, that if the money which was in other people's pockets was in his, he would be better off. Of which there is no doubt. But this sage and his disciples will have to consider that there are but two honest ways of making money—to sell something or to borrow it. So long as you have things to sell that other people want, such as corn, or dry goods or your labor, you can always get money in exchange for them. If you have things of value to pledge, which the lender of money considers sufficient security that he will get his money back, such as land, or wheat, or cotton, or good railway bonds, you can borrow money. The recognition of this fact moved another western stump speaker, who had turned the matter over in his mind, wisely to remark: "What we people need in not more currency, but more collaterals."—a great truth.—Harper's Weekly.

The principal complaint is that slides are not left in the dams so that the fish can get through. These dams are put up in the spring so that logs can be floated down.

The Science of Nose Study.
Not the least charm of the science of "nasology" is the chance which it offers to the historian of testing the characters of eminent men by its rigid and unbending standard.

The historical value of gems and engravings cannot fail to be enhanced by their bearing on this most interesting subject, and the moral value of axioms and actions whose spring has long been doubtful may be solved by reference to the nasal developments of their authors. Apologists for the money making impulse which it pleased Adam Smith to ascribe to human action will, for instance, no longer be able to urge that some such theory was necessary to a logical system of political economy.

Adam Smith possessed the Jewish nose in its highest development. The nose is the reflex of character, and the "nasological" political economist will brush aside apologies and estimate the bias of the father of the science not by the necessities of a theory, but by the hard facts of his Semitic profile.—London Spectator.

Modern Education of Children.

"To bring the child into contact with facts, to guide him in classifying and labelling these facts for himself, becomes the teacher's first and chief duty, in obedience to the sound principle that development of powers is gained by their exercise only. From this point of view education is conceived of as a natural process extending from the cradle to the grave, with nature as the chief teacher and the mother as the first assistant, whose work is carried on by the schools and the experiences of life.

In this natural process of education, ideas come before expressions, whether the idea be the child's first conception of color and form or the profoundest abstraction of a philosopher, and its principles are therefore applicable to education in all grades from the kindergarten to the university.—Professor William M. Aber in Popular Science Monthly.

The Horse Knew What Was Needed.

A remarkable exhibition of instinct was exhibited by a horse at Oil City one day last week. Sunday night the horse was brought into the stable lame, and the stablemen thought it was from a sprain. They were rubbing the leg with liniment Monday morning, when the horse broke away from them and ran into a blacksmith's shop in the neighborhood. Here he wheeled up to the horse-shoer and lifted up his lame leg. The man examined the leg and foot and found that an improperly driven nail had penetrated into the quick of the foot. The shoe was reset, and the horse returned to the barn.—Chicago Herald.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.

More precious than Gold.—Diarrhoea, cholera, and dysentery are, through the summer's heat, carrying off the young, as the winter's cold de- stroys the aged. In the most acute cases, where internal medicines cannot be retained, the greatest relief will immediately result from rub- bing Holloway's soothing Ointment over the abdomen. The friction should be frequent and brisk, to insure the penetration of a large portion of the Ointment. This Ointment calms the excited peristaltic action and soothes the pain. Both vomiting and griping yield to it; where fruit or vegetables have originated the malady, it is pro- per to remove all indigestible matter from the bowels by a moderate dose of Holloway's Pills before using the Ointment.

Spelling the Romance.

"It is very well," said a leading actress, "to have nice, sentimental parts, to be cast away in a boat and come in for a share of the enthusiasm created by the great 'scenic effects,' but just consider when the scene is called for again and again, and you are kept rocking like mad for a good 20 minutes. It isn't so attractive then, to say nothing of being obliged to take a call absolutely green with seasickness, and then run down stairs to 'change' when you can't even see straight. It is like making a nightly 'fall' all through the country, on all sorts of rugs, chiefly fur ones, that are full of dust and the hair of which flies awfully. It isn't so pleasant to lie there while the scene is being finished by the other actors, and you in a 'dead faint' strangle yourself to keep from coughing.

"Or take the scene in Nero where you lie on the couch, and Nero pushes you off on the floor. To a certain extent you can make yourself fall comfortably, but if you don't, if your arms get twisted under you, or your neck is bent, you have to stand it and lie there 'dead' through a long scene. An actress who played the part told me that one night Nero forgot to push her off the couch, and there she was in a frightfully uncomfortable position, almost dead, and so far on the couch that she couldn't make herself fall off even if she would have dared to risk interrupting the scene. The dear people in the audience do not think of these things that are part of the work of pleas- ing them."—Boston Transcript.

Education and Long Life.

It is a common belief that education wears out the body and invigorates the mind. Also that nervous diseases are more common among civilized nations than among the savages, because the latter without education are able to attain and maintain physical perfection. It is claimed by myself, as well as other investigators, that the educated man, the man who studies most, while not physi- cally strong, is yet not weak and is much more able to withstand a given period of nervous tension than is the man with the excellent physique and the moder- ate comprehension. In fact the intel- ligent mind may be physically sick all through life and yet live on in this mis- ery to a good old age, while the strong physique breaks down early, and having no mental or nervous acumen dies very quickly and only at a moderate age.

Among the lowest African tribes, cur- rently supposed to be almost devoid of nerves, nervous diseases are very com- mon. In fact, entire tribes are mere wrecks and only live a little time. It is safe to say that with the advent of civil- ization these tribes would regain phys- ical strength. My best study has been given to the prominent educators of the world, most of whom I find physically weak, but living on and doing work daily that would kill the ordinary laborer in less than three years.—Interview in St.

Nat Goodwin says that he was scared almost to death during his first appearance, and the story that he tells certainly gives color to that assertion.

"In 1873," he said, "I signed for the season to appear in juvenile roles at the Providence Opera House. In a melodrama called 'The Bottle' I was cast for the part of the horrid young villain who is forcing his unwelcome attention on the good young heroine. I thought I was right in it until I made my first speech, and then I discovered my mistake. In the first act I am supposed to suddenly come upon the heroine alone, and I deliver this line: 'So, I have you again, my sweet beauty! Why do you avoid me thus?' I had not more than delivered that line when the girl turned on me and let out an unearthly screech that scared me to death. It shook every line out of my head, and I stood as if I had been suddenly attacked with lockjaw. The heroine was quick to see my plight, however, and she went right on with the play, repeating my lines and then her own. As soon as I saw a chance I made a bolt for the stage door, and with all my makeup on took the next train back to Boston."—New York World.

The Extinct Northern "Sea Cow."

In the year 1754 the Behring explorers discovered gigantic species of rhytina, or "northern sea cow." These enormous manatees were similar in general habits to those of the South American coast and were from 20 to 30 feet in length and from 10 to 20 feet in girth. They were very stupid, harmless beasts, and lived by browsing on seaweeds and other marine growths near the land. The sailors were not slow in finding out that a sea cow steak beat seal meat "all hollow." From 1754 until 1768 they were the principle food of the sailors and explorers on our western coast. This being the case, it is not at all surprising that the northern sea cow, never a very numerous species, should become extinct in the short space of 14 years. The last of the giant manatees was killed in September, 1768, a few months less than 14 years after the discovery of the first one.—St. Louis Republic.

Two Things That Scare a Negro.

Two seemingly harmless things excite the fear of the southern negro. One is the cracking of the finger joints; the other is to be stepped over as he lies prone upon the ground. The cracking of the finger joints seems to suggest to the negro imagination the rattling of a skeleton's bones, while to be stepped over is regarded as likely to bring bad luck to grown folks and to check the growth of children. A half grown negro boy will sternly command a play-fellow who has stepped over his body to step back, in order that the spell may be removed.—New York Sun.

The Customer Ate Crackers.

"Will you please have these biscuits warmed for me?" asked a patron of a Sixth street restaurant of a waiter one night last week. "Very sorry, sir, but the cook is taking a nap, and I'm not allowed to open the oven doors," replied the knight of the tray. The customer ate crackers.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

SIAM IS COMPLETELY COWED.

SHE SUBMITS TO EVERY DEMAND OF FRANCE.

England And France Come to an Agreement Regarding the Neutral Zone—A Semi-Official Statement From Paris as to the Outcome of the Trouble.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Daily News says: "The latest news from Bangkok is very serious. Siam having accepted the French terms, France's persistence in coercive measures will be equivalent to an unprovoked declaration of war, if not an open demand for the cession of Siam. The British Foreign Office has never been in a firmer hands than now. We have no desire to attack France, but while Lord Rosebery made up his mind from the first not to assist or encourage the Siamese, he was equally determined, with the full approval of his colleagues, to protect the commercial rights of his own countrymen. He distinctly warned France that British vessels could not be stopped. It is quite impossible for Great Britain to withdraw the ships she sent to Bangkok for protective purposes. We cannot be accused of inciting public feeling against France, but moderation is one thing, weakness another.

Says It Is Settled.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Standard this morning again affirms that owing to the representations made to M. Develle, the Foreign Minister, by Lord Dufferin, the British Ambassador to France, the question of a neutral zone between the French possessions in the Siamese peninsula and British Burmah and the Shan States has been settled satisfactorily, and that it has been agreed that the French blockade of the Siamese coast shall be raised immediately. Reports of similar purport appear to-day in The Times and Post.

Discussing the Terms.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—A despatch from Paris states that Lord Dufferin, the British Ambassador to France, and M. Develle, the Foreign Minister, at their interview yesterday merely amplified the papers that had already been prepared for signature.

Enquiry at the Foreign Office elicits the information that the discussion was confined to a rough draft of a convention for the delimitation of the frontiers of the territory to be handed over to the French by

of the two powers in the regions of the Upper Mekong. The delimitation of the zone is reserved for a future date.

French and English Relations Strained.
LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Daily News editorially says: "It would be pedantry and folly to deny that our relations with France have been severely strained. France's extremely high-handed procedure, for which there is about as much justification as there was for the partition of Poland, could not be regarded without concern by Great Britain. Much credit for the fortunate outcome is due to the consummate diplomacy of Lord Dufferin, while Lord Rosebery has certainly justified the confidence of the country."

CHOLERA.

The Plague Increasing In Russia — Its Ravages In Naples.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 2.—Official returns show a marked increase in the ravages of cholera in the parts of the empire where the disease is epidemic. The figures show that from July 9 to July 22 there were in the Government of Podolia 1165 cases and 350 deaths, as against 499 cases and 122 deaths during the week preceding. In the Government of Orel, from July 16 to July 22 there were 234 cases and 91 deaths, as against 148 cases and 52 deaths during the previous week. In the Government of Tula there were 77 cases and 19 deaths from July 16 to July 22. In the preceding week there were only 31 cases and 8 deaths. In Moscow, from July 18 to July 22, there were 72 cases and 21 deaths. The epidemic exists, though in less severe form, in the Government of Viatka, Kazan, Riazan, Oufa and Simbirsk.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—From July 20 to July 28 there were 292 cholera cases registered in Naples and 157 deaths. The daily average was 37 cases and 17 deaths. On July 22, 45 fresh cases and 24 deaths were reported. The number of cases has declined since then.

THE GRAND LODGE OPENS ITS SESSION.

The Report of the Grand Secretary shows a Substantial Growth During the Past Year—Prominent Men in the Order Present.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Aug. 2.—The Grand Orange Lodge of British North America opened yesterday afternoon.

Delegates have arrived from all parts of the Dominion and many more are expected later.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Senator Clewlow, Grand Master Wallace, Grand Secretary Birmingham, Grand Chaplain Hewliwell, Grand Treasurer Parkhill, Grand Lecturer Kelly of New Brunswick and Grand Director of Ceremonies Floody are all here.

The attendance from the Maritime Provinces is rather slim, but Manitoba and the territories send a good representation headed by Major Stewart Mulvey of Winnipeg.

A number of the delegates accepted an invitation to a trip on the river to view the new canal works yesterday morning.

The Grand Black Chapter was in session yesterday with Sir Knight Parkhill in the chair. The usual routine business was transacted.

In the Grand Lodge Mr. Robert Birmingham, the grand secretary, reported the issuance of 15 new warrants in Ontario West, 4 in Ontario East, 4 in Nova Scotia, 2 in Manitoba and British Columbia and 5 in N.W.T. Four new district lodges had been opened and the Nipissing district set apart as a new county. Six new O.Y.B. lodges had been brought into existence, four ladies' lodges opened, eight Royal Soarlet dispensations issued and 51 incorporation warrants sent out.

The year just closed has been one of the most successful in the history of the association. The figures show by initiation 1341, by depositing their certificate of membership 1639, and by being reinstated to membership 520. The loss has been: by expulsion, 159, and by death, 315. Net increase, 6025.

The auditors' report showed the Grand Secretary's receipts to be $2852.36, with expenditures of $774.21, an increase over the preceding year of $406.86 and $29.90 respectively. The Grand Treasurer has a the Siamese and the formation of a buffer country between the French and British possessions.

France's Second Ultimatum.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—The supplementary guarantees demanded by France from Siam, which includes the temporary custody of the river and port of Chantibun and that Siam shall not establish military stations in certain named places near the Cambodian frontier or within a certain distance of the Mekong River, were contained in a note issued by M. Develle yesterday and made public to-day. The text of the note is as follows:

PARIS, July 31.—The delay of Siam in accepting the ultimatum presented by the French Minister resident at Bangkok has justified the Government of the Republic in imposing heavier conditions. Being desirous, however, to give further proof of the sentiments of moderation to which she has been constantly actuated France will content herself as an indispensable guarantee for the practical execution of the clauses of the ultimatum with occupying the river and port of Chantibun until the complete evacuation of the posts established by the Siamese on the left bank of the Mekong river. Further for the purpose of guaranteeing a continuance of the good relations happily re-established between France and Siam and for preventing a conflict in the region of Lake Touloup, Siam will undertake to maintain no military forces in Battambang and Siemreut and the locality situated within a radius of 25 kilometres of the Mekong starting from the Cambodian frontier. Siam will only maintain the police force necessary to pre-serve order. Moreover, Siam will not maintain warships or armed boats on the waters of the great lake or the Mekong River.

In the House of Lords.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—In the House of Lords last night the Earl of Rosebery, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, read the text of the first ultimatum and of the supplementary ultimatum sent by France to Siam and accepted by the latter country. He said: "We have signed an agreement in Paris establishing a neutral zone in Indo-China."

Siam's Submission Is Complete.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—Prince Vadiana, the Siamese Minister to France, called at the Foreign Office yesterday and informed Foreign Minister Develle that Siam was prepared to give the supplementary guarantees required by France for the strict fulfillment of the terms of the ultimatum pending a final settlement of the questions involved. It is understood that the French will occupy the river and port of Chantibun, which town lies 175 miles to the southeast of Bangkok, on the Gulf of Siam, until a complete evacuation is made of Siamese military posts on the left bank of the Mekong River.

The blockade is still in force.

English and German Gunboats Off Bangkok.

BANGKOK, Aug. 2.—English and German gunboats entered the Menam River yesterday. They proceeded up the river and came to an anchor off the city.

The New Blockade.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The Sun's special from London says: Enquiries after midnight at the British Admiralty brought a response from the official in charge that confirmation had been received from Bangkok of the report that the French admiral had given notice of a fresh blockade to begin on Wednesday. It was added that: "There is no question of British gunboats leaving Bangkok in response to French or any other demands."

The assurance that the fullest recognition would be given to British rights in the disputed territory above the 18th parallel, which was received from France Sunday night in answer to Lord Dufferin's protest against the French occupation, was believed by the British Government to have secured a peaceful solution of the difficulty. This confidence is no longer felt.

A Semi-Official Explanation.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—A semi-official note says: "The various interviews between M. Develle and Lord Dufferin in the last few days referred exclusively to the upper Mekong question which has been pending between France and Great Britain for years and which was brought into prominence by the Franco-Siamese conflict. All decisions in the matter were postponed until Siam unreservedly accepted the French ultimatum. Acceptance having been made France has not hesitated to adhere to the principle of a mutual zone to be established by means of mutual sacrifices between the possessions of the two states, but that Russia has resolved to ask China for an explanation of her attitude in the Pamir question in view of the enormous masses of Chinese troops concentrated in the vicinity of the Pamirs.

BRAZILIAN INSURGENTS WIN.

Towns in Three Provinces Captured With Bloodshed.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—A despatch from Buenos Ayres states that the revolution in the Provinces of Buenos Ayres, San Luis and Santa Fe continues. Contrary to expectations the insurgents have taken most of the towns in the provinces named, with little bloodshed. Much anxiety is felt as to the result of a conflict that has taken place at Lapata. Gen. Costa was in command of a garrison of 2000 men at that place. The troops were well armed. The insurgents who attacked the town numbered about 2000. The city of Santa Fe is besieged and the insurgents have granted the Government two hours in which to surrender. It is reported many insurgents have been captured at Lapata.

The Revolution Purely Local.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Argentine Minister in London has communicated to the press the following despatch from the Government at Buenos Ayres, dated July 31:

"The revolutionary movements in the Provinces of Buenos Ayres, Santa Fe and San Luis are entirely local. No voice of disloyalty against the national authorities has been raised in those provinces, or in any part of the republic where peace prevails. The national authorities are awaiting the sanction of Congress to bring their powerful and efficacious influences to bear to establish peace and constitutional order.

The Duchess of Sparta of a Son.

ATHENS, Aug. 2.—The Duchess of Sparta, wife of the Crown Prince of Greece and sister of the German Emperor, was safely delivered of a son yesterday.

THE CAMPBELL HERESY CASE.

The Professor Will Defend His Views To the Utmost As Being Orthodox.

MONTREAL, Aug. 2.—The Presbytery yesterday morning met again to consider the Prof. Campbell heresy case. The professor was not present himself and the morning was spent in amending the libel principally by adding lengthy quotations from St. Matthew, proving the almighty wrath of God and thereby strengthening the charge of Prof. Campbell's refusal to accept God as a "smiter." Prof. Campbell will appear at the opening of the trial at the time and place to be appointed by the Presbytery. The libel consists of two counts, one charging the professor with denying the innerrancy of the Old Testament, even in the original inspired text. The other count accuses him of heresy in denying that God "smites" the wicked as punishment or the "goad" as a means of discipline.

There is, according to a member of the Presbytery, no prospect of Prof. Campbell's resignation. He will defend his views to the utmost as orthodox Presbyterian doctrine. Even though he did resign his chair in the college that would not end the matter. He would still be held accountable for his utterances as a minister of the church.

A Wreck on a Mexican Railroad.

A waterspout had washed away several rods of track, and the east-bound passenger train dashed into the gap. GIRLS' PRIVILEGES.

A Judge Says They May Smoke On the Streets If They Please.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 2.—Monday evening Annie Wilson, Amy Errington, and Mary Wilson were strolling up Jefferson-street, engaged in idle conversation and languidly puffing cigarettes. Policemen Smith and Gunther were shocked at the unusual sight and arrested the three girls on the charge of disorderly conduct. After Judge Buckley, in the City Court, had listened to the testimony yesterday he said:

"While the accused were not acting in accordance with the established canons of society, I cannot see that they were violating any law."

"Of course not," said Capt. Minton, their attorney, "Especially as they paid for the cigarettes. This is an age of progress, and, the young ladies were simply blazing the way."

"Dismiss the case," said the Judge.

Thieves At a Summer Resort.

RIDGEWAY, Aug. 2.—Crystal Beach, the summer resort near here, has been worked by a gang of thieves. Cottages and tents were plundered of cash, gold watches and other valuable articles. Perhaps the boldest part of the whole scheme of crime was the setting up of a fake check stand, where many of the transient visitors left their baskets and articles of surplus clothing for a time, for which they received checks. At the proper moment the check stand made an assignment, its available assets being such articles as had been entrusted to its proprietors which the latter did not want.

Married a Chinese Physician.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 2.—Dr. Lee Ling, a Chinese physician of Chicago, and Miss Lizzie B. Fairman, an American girl of the same city, were married yesterday by the Rev. McAlphine of the Universalist Church. The bride is a pretty girl of eighteen, the stepdaughter of a Mr. Walsh, a saloon keeper. Owing to his strenuous objections to the match, the pair eloped, and had the ceremony performed here. Dr. Ling is 30 years old, and is said to have a good practice.

The Italian Admiral on His Dignity.

MONTREAL, Aug. 2.—The admiral of the Italian warship has announced as his ultimatum this afternoon that unless a return salute be fired to-day, the Etna will leave her anchor and leave Montreal harbor to-night.

Hon. J. C. Patterson ordered the salute to be fired, which was done at noon.

Killed Under an Overturned Wagon.

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 2.—David Clark, who came from the vicinity of Stayner last spring and rented a farm four miles west of this city, which he has been working, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon.

He and his hired man were working in the woods with a spirited team of horses which became frightened and turned suddenly, upsetting the wagon. Mr. Clark was thrown underneath and dragged for a considerable distance. When found life was extinct.

Will of the Late Senator Ross.

OTTAWA, Aug. 2.—Application was made yesterday before Mr. Duval, acting registrar of the Supreme Court, to admit additional evidence in the will case of the late Senator Ross, Quebec, which comes up for hearing at the next term of the court. There are between five and six million dollars involved in this case. M. Duval referred the application to a judge in chambers to be heard in the early part of September.

A Discriminating Streak of Lightning.

CANTON, O., Aug. 2.—During a storm yesterday, which was the heaviest in the history of the country, lightning struck the residence of Edward Haller, went down a sheet-iron chimney, passed through a slate roof, and went straight into the room where Mrs. Haller was sitting and burned the pages of a book she was reading. The lady was uninjured.

Fell Dead in His Factory.

BELLEVILLE, Aug. 2.—Mr. S. J. White, box manufacturer, fell dead in his factory yesterday from heart failure. Deceased, who was 62 years of age, leaves a wife and one daughter.

A London Man Drops Dead in Quebec.

KAIGLER ALSO LYNCHED.

The Last of the Men Who Assaulted Mrs. Sightler Pays the South Carolina Penalty.

COLUMBIA, S.C., Aug. 2.—Handy Kaigler, the last of the three negroes who assaulted Mrs. Sightler of Gaston, was taken from the Lexington Jail last night. He had been placed there several days ago by the Gaston mob on an understanding with Sheriff Drafts that he should be delivered whenever wanted. He was wanted about 12 o'clock by a deputation of six men who went from Gaston. The sheriff kept his word and delivered Kaigler to the men, who started immediately with him for Gaston, about 20 miles away. A crowd from Columbia went to Lexington and demanded the negro before the Gaston deputation arrived, but the sheriff refused to turn him over to them.

Kaigler reached Gaston in the morning about daylight. He was subjected to many tortures, but he steadily refused to confess his guilt. Notwithstanding this, his body was bared and Sightler, although he had been nights without sleep, beat the negro unmercifully with a rawhide. The man's cries could be heard for rods, but they seemed to make the crowd more furious. When Sightler became exhausted another man continued the flogging for several minutes. Kaigler was finally taken under the tree where the bodies of Thompson and Preston were hanging and a rope was thrown between them.

Kaigler was still protesting his innocence when the rope was placed around his neck. He was drawn up and let down repeatedly, and when almost dead, Sightler fired a bullet which ended his life. His body was then suspended and the crowd shot at it. All three bodies hung on the same limb for several hours. Then the mob decided not to burn them. A trench was dug beneath them. Then the mob cut them down, shovelled a little dirt upon the bodies, and disappeared.

MAD AT HIS GIRL'S MARRYING

A FATHER KICKS HER THROUGH A BARB WIRE FENCE.

She Did Not Take the Man He Selected For Her, so He Slapped Her and Afterwards Locked Her Up In the House—Husband and Lover Look On.

WOODSTOCK, Aug. 2.—Police Magistrate Field heard a case of assault at the Police Court yesterday morning, in which the chief witness was a bride of a few hours. The accused is the bride's father, and while the husband merely laid the charge of assault it is understood the object of the litigation is to get possession of his wife.

The parties to the affair are John Redhead, an Englishman, and Rhoda Cleaves, daughter of Robert Cleaves, who resides near Beachville. She had been engaged as maid servant at Mr. T. H. Parker's for some months, while Redhead was employed as butler by the same gentleman.

The two lovers decided forthwith to get married. Rev. R. J. Elliott tied the nuptial knot. On Sunday morning week the bride's sister took Rhoda home to spend the day. Redhead accompanied them and the fact that they had been married could not be kept a secret. But as soon as the bride's father heard of the clandestine wedding he gave his daughter, it is said, a most brutal thrashing in the presence of her husband and a rival lover from Embro. The old man slapped the bride repeatedly, and as a parting mark of parental love kicked her through a barb wire fence. The husband and his rival for Rhoda's affections stood quietly by and witnessed the fracas without once attempting to protect the young woman. The bride was then taken into the house and locked up, when her husband was ordered off the farm.

It is said the cause of the old man's wrath was the fact that his daughter had refused against his wish to marry the Embro suitor, who is a very respectable young man named McDonald. The young woman and McDonald were engaged, but in his absence Redhead had pressed and won his suit for Rhoda's hand and heart.

Mr. Cleaves is a section man on the C. & N. W. R. R. and is said to have a violent temper. Rhoda says she is 20, but her father puts it at 18.

Poisoned Himself, Cursing Every One.
NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Hermann Waterman, an aged German, who lived at 20 Ludlow-street with his wife, poisoned himself with Paris green yesterday afternoon. Wrapped in a German paper was a long letter written to a reporter connected with the paper, in which the old man told of his intention to commit suicide. He said that he killed himself because he had been cheated, abandoned and abused by family and friends, and he died cursing them all.

They Cut Out the Child's Tongue.
GALVESTON, Texas, Aug. 2.—Near Montgomery three negroes attacked the house of M. Marsh, killed him, ravished his wife, murdered his infant and cut out the tongue of his 7-year-old child. His wife is believed to be dying. One negro was caught and lynched. The sheriff and posse are searching for the others.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Michael Pryor, a lad 16 years old, living in Main-street, Yonkers, was dangerously shot in the back last night by an unknown man. He was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he lies in a critical condition. Young Pryor had climbed into an apple tree on the old Getty estate, near Park Hill Station, when the stranger passed, and, seeing him in the tree, asked him what he was doing there. Without any warning the man drew a revolver and fired at the boy. The ball, which was a 38-calibre, hit Pryor in the back, just above the right hip. He fell to the ground, a distance of 15 feet. When the stranger saw that his bullet hit Pryor he ran through the woods and disappeared. Joseph Wilkes, who was standing near the tree, witnessed the shooting. The police are looking for the lad's assailant.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 2.—The three electric locomotives to haul trains through the new Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tunnel under this city are completed and will soon be tested. The weight on driving wheels will be 100 tons, and there will be 12 drivers to each locomotive. The maximum weight of freight trains to be hauled is 1200 tons, which can be carried at a speed of 15 miles an hour. Maximum weight of passenger train, 500 tons; speed, 30 miles an hour.

The officials of both the electric and the railroad companies are satisfied that the plan will be successful. The power station is nearly finished, and the five generators will have a capacity of 700 horsepower each at 600 volts. The tunnel will be illuminated by 4000 incandescent lights.

A CLERGYMAN'S NARROW ESCAPE.
Disfigured For Life by Being Struck by a Falling Casting.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 2.—On Saturday Rev. Mr. Shutt, rector of St. Barnabas' Church, was walking around a building in course of erection, when an iron casting, weighing some 15 or 16 pounds, which was being placed in position, slipped and fell. Mr. Shutt was standing directly underneath, and hearing a warning shout he glanced up, and as he did so the casting fell on his face knocking him to the ground and splitting his nose so that he was able to breathe from the sides as well as the nostrils. Had he not glanced up when houted to the iron casting would have struck him on top of the head and probably killed him. He will be disfigured for life.

—Rev. F. W. Dobb has received from England, from the church extension society, a set of altar vestments, beautifully worked by hand, by Kilburn sisters, for St. Alban's church, Odessa. They make a very handsome gift.

—The Intelligencer states that the well known Big Island trotter, owned by G. Allison, was sold last week to Hugh Milling, of Napanee, and Wm Hatch, of Deseronto. It is said the price paid was $1,500. Islander has a mark around the twentys.

—William Brown, of the township of Sheffield, Addington, passed away Saturday last, aged eighty-eight years. Deceased came to this country half a century ago. Two daughters and four sons, one of whom, Robert Brown, resides in Deseronto, are the mourners.

—Abe Pendell, driver of the Napanee and Deseronto stage, was recently robbed of the sum of ten dollars while going to Deseronto. He placed the matter in the hands of Chief Gunyoun, of that place, who by some skillful detective work located the thief, a young lad of respectable parentage, who admitted his guilt. He restored the money and was let off.

—Belleville Ontario:—Mr. G. S. Johnson has purchased a fine specimen of the Jersey breed of cattle from Mr. Walter Kiley, Napanee. Queen Beth arrived this morning by boat and in every point shows clearly her breed. Large full eyes, small head and horns, fine neck together with slim legs and tall, beautiful brown and cream color, makes her a handsome animal to look at and one that Mr. Johnson has every reason to feel proud of.

—A young man named Burt Ireland, a son of George Ireland of Trenton, was found dead in the woods on his father's farm a few miles from this place. He went out on Saturday morning to work among some potatoes, intending to use Paris green on them and was accidentally poisoned in some way, it is supposed. As he did not return at noon or evening a search was made and continued until an early hour Sunday morning, when his body was discovered in a thicket.

—The yacht Vera, owned by Mr. Rooney of Kingston, was in Belleville harbor Friday. She ran aground and was pulled off by the tug belonging to the dredge.—Mrs. Taylor, of Napanee, is the guest of Mrs. Sheriff Gillespie.—Mrs. Jno. guests, about fifty in number, did ample justice. Many were the beautiful and costly presents received. The bride and groom accompanied by Miss Way and Mr. Wm. Vanastine left in the yacht Madge for a cruise among the 1000 Islands. We extend them our congratulations.

Presented his Report.

Rev. J. J. Rae, who attended the Christian Endeavour convention in Montreal as delegate from the Western Methodist church, presented his report on Thursday evening last. The attendance was fairly good. The president of the society Mr. F. Hooper occupied the chair. The choir of the church sang some of the pieces which were used at the convention. A quartette was also rendered by Misses Ada Lane and Blanche Fralick and Messrs. D. Davis and J. F. Tilley. Mr. Rae gave a very interesting report of what was done in Montreal and all were interested in the proceedings of the recent great gathering. Several instructive points were given and those who heard him were stimulated to renewed zeal in behalf of one of the leading christian organizations of the continent.

Pleasant Excursion.

On Tuesday afternoon last there was an excursion to Picton, per steamer Rivinder, under the auspices of the Junior Guild of St. Mary Magdalene's church. There was a goodly number on board, although the patronage extended was not so large as was wished, nor as the boat could accommodate. A good time and a fine day were characteristics of the excursion. The boat stayed half an hour at Picton, and called at Deseronto and Bogart's wharf both up and down. A number stayed over at the last two mentioned places in preference of going to Picton. A number of citizens are camping near Bogart's wharf. A pleasant salute was given and received opposite Point Misery, both going and returning, where, also a number of citizens are living under canvas. The trip was a thoroughly enjoyable one.

Likely to Settle Here.

Some time ago Mr. Alf. Knight wrote to Messrs. Joshua and William Taylor, of Philadelphia, with reference to the starting of a factory in this town by these gentlemen, both of whom are thoroughly well posted in the business they wish to establish. One day last week much to the surprise of Mr. Knight, these gentlemen visited Napanee. They had been to Toronto and other places, and had been interviewed by many real estate agents who were anxious to secure them. After visiting the empty factories in Napanee, the Messrs. Taylor left to interview Sir Richard Cartwright. We hope they will be able to make satisfactory arrangements to do business, and that Napanee may spit these gentlemen, who will employ a large number of hands in the manufacture of jacquard and woolen goods.

A District Convention.

The Sabbath School Association of Ontario has, within the past five years, developed a much more aggressive policy. Formerly it was satisfied with holding an annual convention, and that it has been able to do this for nearly thirty years shows how much these gatherings are appreciated. Now it aims at the establishment of new Sunday School's by summer campaigns in sparsely settled parts of the province, and each year secures a number of volunteers—ministers and laymen—who devote their holidays during July, August and September to this work. Then, as the Provincial Conventions cannot be attended by all, District Conventions are now held each year, several counties being grouped for this purpose. The latest phase of the Association's work is the mapping out of the province into district sub-committees so that the members of the central executive committee residing within a certain radius, may meet for the purpose of conferring as to how in that radius the Association's work may be more effectively done. The first meeting of "No. 3 Eastern Ontario"—the Counties of Frontenac, Lennox, Addington, Hastings and Prince Edward, with the cities of Kingston and Belleville—is to be held at Napanee, on Tuesday, 31st August, at 2.30 p.m., and in the evening a public meeting will be held and be addressed by well-known, practical Sunday School workers.

TOWN COUNCIL

COUNCIL CHAMBER
July 31st, '93

A meeting was called by the mayor for five o'clock in the afternoon.

Present: Mayor (in the chair), reeve Carson, dep-reeve Symington, Couns. Meng, Ward, Pringle, Potter, Daly, McAlister, Warner, Anderson.

The Mayor explained the object of the meeting. A requisition for a granolithic sidewalk, fully signed, had been handed in from property owners on the south side of Dundas street, from the Leonard Block to Dettlor & Fullerton's, and the council was summoned to consider the matter.

Couns. Stevens and Pringle moved that the prayer of the petition be granted, and Mr. Stevens spoke to the motion.

Coun Warner spoke in support of the motion, urging it was only fair to give residents on both sides of the street equal privileges.

Reeve Carson spoke against the motion saying the town could not afford the improvement this year. The application should be referred to the Finance Committee to report.

Dep-reeve Symington said he was in favour of granolithic walks, but he was not prepared to support this motion at present. There was nothing to gain by rushing on this motion but something might be gained by delay, because these walks were cheapening all the time. He moved that the prayer of the petition be granted next year.

Mr. Uriah Wilson addressed the council saying the property owners interested had unanimously asked for this improvement, and he thought residents on one side of the street were as much entitled to the walk as those on the other.

Mr. Daly thought the matter might be laid over for a week, until next regular meeting.

Dr. Ward was not in favour of building the walk in question at present, but if it was a question of now or next spring, it might as well be built at once.

There was some discussion as to whether the work would be done at once or no, and as to whether the motion was in order.

The Mayor put Mr. Stevens motion: Yeas, Anderson, Pringle, Potter, Stevens, Meng, Leonard. Nays, Carson, Daly and Ward.

WESLEY ON TOBACCO.

Mr. Editor.—In the Church of England Notes in the Express of July 28th, we read that "John Wesley smoked—so it seems—in a summer house of his own, and that identical summer house is treasured by the present bishop of Southwark in his garden at Blackheath." This reminds one of a ghost story, which the narrator claimed to be true, for he had seen the identical barn through a slit in which the ghost had disappeared.

Permit me to say that so far from being an illustrious prop for smoking bishops and others, John Wesley, by precept and example, through a long life, bore testimony against the filthy and pernicious habit. Early in the great movement of which he was the leader, he enjoined abstinence from tobacco upon his "helpers" and the members of "bands," and urged it upon others. In the minutes of his conferences he says to his preachers: "Vigorously, but calmly, enforce the rules concerning needless drams, snuff and tobacco."—Works, Vol. v, p. 226. In a letter to a preacher in Ireland he says: "Use no tobacco unless prescribed by a physician. It is an uncleanly and unwholesome self indulgence and the more customary it is, the more resolutely should you break off from every degree of that evil custom."—Works, Vol. vi, p. 746.

The writer of the Notes proceeds to say: "But have not our Wesleyan (?) friends passed a kind of eleventh commandment against smoking, drinking, dancing, base ball, Sunday cars, etc?" I answer, base license is given to such conduct between the sexes as would be considered most compromising under any circumstances, and Sunday amusements, which Sunday cars represent, were denounced by Mr. Wesley long ago, in strict keeping with the ten commandments.

It would, therefore, become those who, posing as religious teachers, sneer at his followers and patronize and compliment these fashionable vices, to put their interpolation point after the word christian, when applied to themselves.

In another paragraph of these notes it is held that the church—the effect, was before the Word of God—the cause, and so of supreme authority, which absurd fallacy arises from confounding the present form—the New Testament, with its substance—the teaching of Christ and his apostles.

WESLEYAN.

A NOTE FROM PATRONS.

To the Editor of the Express.

An open meeting of the Patrons of Industry, branch association No 1850, Tyendinaga, was held on the 20th instant. Addresses by Mr. Palmer, organizer, and Mr. George W. Goodwin, of Napanee, were delivered. Mr. T. J. Osborn occupied the chair. Mr. Palmer was the first speaker to address the audience and he acquitted himself in a masterly manner, reserving however the right to reply to the succeeding speaker. The treat of the evening however was the address of Mr. George W. Goodwin, which occupied one hour and thirty minutes, to which most profound attention was given throughout.

It is an old axiom "that a prophet is not without honour, save in his own country."

We cannot but believe this to be so in the case of Mr. Goodwin whose address was the most instructive that this section have ever had the privilege of listening to. The speaker drew attention to the fact that the farmers were the chief productive force of the country and that force is represented by what the people of Canada consent to part with; as in the export of the $100,000,000 of products, which for one million families represent only one hundred dollars per family of wealth force. Then followed the chart illustration showing the agencies in the field of distribution which absorbs to themselves not only the whole productive force of this country but like the "lean kine" that devoured Egypt, are hungry for another years crop which must be satisfied by mortgaging the land which our fathers wrung from the wilderness, and he admonished the Patrons of the necessity of arming themselves to the knowledge of their condition lest they like the Egyptians of old go down to slavery to remain slaves. As contributing to the depressed state of our country the speaker characterized the tariff of 35 per cent as a government mortgage upon that amount which each family consumes and this fact taken in connection with the increase of mortgages and the further fact of the impossibility of redeeming land previously mortgaged goes far to explain the causes which have made the organization of Patrons of Industry a necessity.

Mr. McAlpin, president of Marysville association was invited to address the audience but being indisposed declined.

Mr. Palmer again took the platform and to the delight of the audience coincided with and gave his hearty approval to the views advanced by Mr. Goodwin even expressing the opinion that the condition of the farmers was even worse than painted.

A number of ladies graced the audience with their presence as a guarantee of good order.

A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the speakers of the evening who replied gracefully. Twelve o'clock having now been reached the meeting closed with a song by the president, Mr. Scantlin.
